Potluck and Discussion
The next potluck and discussion will be held at Sara's house on Tuesday, June 16 from 6- 8 p.m.

A Journey of Freedom: Songs of Slavery and Emancipation
A Journey of Freedom: Songs of Slavery and Emancipation will be performed on Friday, June 19 at 7 p.m. at the Highland Center for the Arts. Part of a multi-state concert tour and musical pilgrimage retracing the path of the Underground Railroad through performance, scholarship and song, and ending in Greensboro. The tour celebrates America's 250th anniversary, inviting audiences to reexamine the nation's founding ideals through the authentic voices of those who fought for freedom. The program is made possible through the support of the Vermont Humanities Council. General Admission $10.

The singing group, 15 people will arrive on Thursday, June 18 at the Highland Center for the Arts in Greensboro. After dinner, they'll caravan to West Glover where committee members will host them for the night. The committee will provide a brunch for them at the West Glover Church at 10 a.m. Committee members will contribute some of the food and we'll purchase food that will be cooked on site. There will be a singing workshop led by the director (open to the public) on Friday afternoon. Followed in the evening by a dinner and the performance.

Meeting adjourned at 5:25 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Darlene Young, Secretary
