

Glover Cemetery Commissioners
Meeting Minutes
March 15, 2021
9am

Present: Joan Alexander, Ricky Blanchard, Jessica Sweeney and Cindy Epinette.

Absent: Theresa Janowski

1. The meeting was called to order at 9:15am.
2. Green Burials: Joanie received information about “green burials” from Green Mount Cemetery. The following subjects were discussed:
 - a. dedicating the hillside and/or the section where trees are growing are possible locations for green burials, calling Heritage Memorial to schedule a time to review section 1 and 3,
 - b. should a combination of a traditional burial and a green burial be allowed on the same lot,
 - c. it was suggested that a policy be written to help guide burials, to avoid disturbing the existing remains in a lot,
 - d. permitting only one burial in a lot if it’s a green burial;
 - e. reviewing the rate charged for each lot,
 - f. a suggestion was made to have a professional prepare the ground for a burial,
 - g. concerns about a winter burial vs summer burials.
3. Joanie will include information about green burials in the appeal letter that will be mailed this year. The Committee would like public input and suggestions. She will also try to set up a meeting in April with Lee Webster to get more information.
4. The Committee agreed that more time and information is needed before committing to a green burials.
5. The meeting was adjourned at 10:20am.

Respectfully Submitted,
